Top 5 Adult Fiction

Staff Picks for Summer Reading

If you're a fan of Science Fiction, Afro-Futurism, collaborative anthologies, or high-concept pop music, check out Janelle Monáe's 'The Memory Librarian'. The singer/actor/artist/creator has teamed up with some amazing sci-fi writers for this collection of short stories set in the same world as her album Dirty Computer.

Jacqui-Librarian

Mathew Reilly's latest novella, 'Cobalt Blue', combines science-fiction with non-stop save the world heroics. He is brutal with his characters and has many over-the-top action sequences. For me it reads like a movie pitch and one I'd like to see made!

Kat-Librarian

I adored 'Bodies of Light' by Jennifer Down. This novel follows the heartbreaking story of Maggie growing up in an unsupportive foster care system. The novel follows the devastating impact of a lifetime of mistreatment, abuse, and broken connections which shapes her adulthood. I got so attached to the character of Maggie that I didn't want to leave her!

Lauren-Librarian

'Dare to Lead' by Brené Brown brings decades of research to culminate in a practical and insightful guide to encourage leadership. This book is a road map for anyone who wants to lead mindfully, live bravely and dare to lead!
